

"Gap year" or a year-long break from school

A year off or "gap year" is a period of learning, it includes the time between graduation and entering College or in high school. "Gap year", distributed in the United States, as well as in Australia and the UK. Intermediate interruption may last for several months, perhaps a year or more.

For our country this experience is also acceptable, it happens that the child is not able for whatever reason to go to school and left behind.

That's why we can distinguish five reasons why the experience of foreign students will be useful to us.

Reason 1. Time to think

The last year of the most intense study, exams, preparation, nervous tension and all of this is superimposed on top of each other. At this time, the student is not always able to set priorities and determine the direction of where to go next. Most often this affects children with the syndrome of "excellence". They have always strived to be the best, to please everyone, and the time to understand what they need and where to go was not.

That's why one of the benefits is "gap year," this period of time helps to determine priorities and understand where to go next.

2. the cause of There is a time to go abroad to study

Abroad, the school implies 12 years of schooling, compared to 11 years in Russia. The first step after training and schooling will be right to go abroad for training. At this time, there are many state programs for sharing, this is a chance to study abroad, to communicate with native speakers of your chosen country, to participate in sports and cultural life of the institution. However the length of stay and study in different countries differ from each other, somewhere they are 4-10 months, and in Germany 2-3.

If you want to improve the language and to extend your stay for the whole academic year, then you are in America or Canada, there are many private schools with whom we can conclude a contract for the study.

Reason 3. Prepare for the arrival

American scientists agree that the students enrolled in training after a year break 'gap year' show responsibility in the learning process, and have already decided on the process of building their careers.

Students who decided to enroll in creative programs gap year is an opportunity to gather a good large portfolio for admission.

Reason 4. Gap year – this time to catch up

You want to improve your English, or try their hand at creating websites? Then a 'gap year' – this is the time that will help you improvement. Although, it may not be useful, but the knowledge acquired will stay with you. And perhaps with the acquisition of new knowledge in life happens for a new round, which you lift to a new level.

Reason 5. The opportunity to earn

What – this is the "gap year", it's a chance to be a little financially independent, but we should not delude ourselves, part-time and unskilled labor a lot of money will bring. But let us clarify about how you will get the first recording of the work, and the money can be deferred for further study. Another important part of work is the acquisition of important skills, responsibility, ability to make decisions, to show their leadership qualities and the ability to budget and simply become a confident man.
